An aerial, black and white photograph of a large group of surfers scattered across a vast, dark ocean. The surfers are seen from above, each on their own surfboard. The surfboards vary in design, with some featuring stripes or other patterns. The surfers are in various positions, some appearing to be waiting for a wave, others in motion. The water is dark and textured, with some white foam visible where surfers are breaking or moving. The overall scene conveys a sense of a large gathering of surfers in a remote or popular surfing location.

NAVAJO NATION, ARIZONA

Missionsdoor.org

On mission field since 2009

John leads groups to do work projects that serve the local Navajo in the communities of Inscription House, Shonto, and Indian Wells. Our goal is to down-live Christianity's bad reputation and win a good one as representatives of their local churches. Our other goal is to serve the churches that participate in the projects by being a tool for discipleship. We strive to create an environment that facilitates the disciple-making work being done by those churches.

Prayer Request

Pray I would continue to look at each project with a "fresh eye" and not take them for granted.

Pray God would use the trips to ignite a passion for following Jesus and serving.

Pray for safe travels for myself and the teams that come out, and for God to watch over Beth and our home when I'm on the road.

Bible Verse

"...win favor and a good name in the sight of God and man." Proverbs 3:4

"Serve like Jesus served."
John 13

"God is my refuge and fortress. I will trust him no matter what." Psalm 91

What aspect of your ministry is exciting you today?

Seeing the Navajo's attitude change regarding their preconceived ideas about Christian groups coming into their communities. Although I don't get a lot of feedback, it's exciting to hear about how the trips have changed the lives of participants. Sometimes it's pretty dramatic.

What are your favorite things to do?

Bass fishing is at the top of the list (whenever I have time to do it). I listen to/read a lot of books when I'm alone. My wife and I enjoy old time movies and cooking together.

CAMP ATTITUDE

OREGON

Campattitude.org

Directors Dan and Candi Whitney - On mission field since 2002

Camp Attitude is a camping experience for special needs children and their families at no cost to them.

Prayer Request

Pray for God's continued provisions for Camp. We rely completely on volunteers and monetary donations. Pray for the special needs children and their families as they face herculean challenges on a daily basis. Pray that they turn to Him for strength and peace.

Bible Verse

"Be still and know that I am God." Psalm 46:10a

"Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for His compassions never fail. They are new every morning, great is your faithfulness."

Lamentations 3:22-23

What aspect of your ministry is exciting to you today?

Witnessing the joy and peace the families enjoy at camp. Each child, sibling, and parent is served with the unconditional love of Jesus Christ. This alone provides a fertile ground for witnessing and sharing the GREAT news.

What are your favorite things to do?

We love going out on movie dates (Candi is addicted to popcorn). Because of both of our health situations, we find ourselves enjoying one another's company as best friends. Any chance we get, we spend time with our daughters, Nicole and Dani.

MEXICO

Missionsdoor.org

On mission field since 2000

Our mission is to bring the Gospel of grace to youth who feel they don't fit in at traditional churches. Mark is also the teaching pastor at a small church in Guadalajara, where he can make church more appealing to young people.

Prayer Request

Pray for English Fellowship of Guadalajara—that it will grow and form community between college students, foreign professionals on work assignment, and American retirees who have made this city their home.

Bible Verse

“‘I know the plans I have for you,’ declares the Lord, ‘plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.’” Jeremiah 29:11

What aspect of your ministry is exciting to you today?

The church where we serve is English-speaking, but multi-cultural. Since there are many universities in our city, we want the church to be multi-generational as well. We hope to create a greater level of participation in which college students bring much needed enthusiasm and older folks bring wisdom.

What are your favorite things to do?

We love exploring the city as a family, participating in extracurricular opportunities, including sports and music classes.

John 13:34-35

What aspect of your ministry is exciting to you today?

I have recruited and am training colleagues for next-of-kin notification and compassion ministry. I wouldn't use the word exciting but it is a sobering ministry of care. Using a strategy called Community Health Evangelism (CHE), we are mobilizing the Church globally for movements among the poor that alleviate poverty and lead to faith in Christ. Once empowered, these villages take what they have learned to neighboring villages and multiplying the blessings.

Prayer Request

Pray for 10,000 model villages strategically placed throughout the developing world. A transformed village has a growing church, clean water, sanitation, food security, education for all children, and sustainable enterprise. A model village is one that has been transformed, measured by the indicators above and is multiplying that change to neighboring villages.

We're also involved in national teacher training institutes to equip teachers with new methodologies and ways of thinking to destroy the former dehumanizing mentalities in lands once trapped behind the "iron curtain," and to instead present a scriptural foundation that all children are talented, can learn and deserve dignity, hope, and self-confidence.

P.L.A.Y. (Purpose Leadership Adventure for Youth) camps are breaking down barriers of cultural differences, economic disparities, and misinformation that leads to mistrust and resentment and replacing them—one changed heart at a time—with love. They offer free week-long camps, partnered with public schools in disadvantaged areas, for 6th and 7th grade students to be trained as Christ-centered leaders. The camps address social justice issues such as racism and sexual abuse as well.

P.L.A.Y.

Purpose

Knowing God has a plan for your life and wants a personal relationship with you is a crucial source of strength and hope and instills courage to lead.

Leadership

Learning new attitudes and decision-making skills allows you to influence those around you, to use peer pressure as a force for good, and to develop character to stand up for what is right.

Adventure

Pushing your personal limits builds self-confidence; you must believe in yourself first to lead others.

Youth

Campers are 11-13 years old. This is a critical age to reach children as they are forming identity, choosing role models, and building relationships.

Prayer Request

Pray for wisdom for the P.L.A.Y. board as they figure out how to navigate camps and secure needed leadership in this COVID season and beyond.

Pray for the students who come that their lives will be changed eternally, and that barriers between races will begin to crumble.

We train African pastors and equip active Christian lay leadership for more effective ministry in places where there are no full time pastors available. We also offer advanced Bible and ministry training seminars on a regular basis to pastors and Christian leaders who otherwise may never have opportunity to receive such on-going, in-service training. We run a mentorship program, mobilize strong church-planting initiatives, and work among AIDS orphans in Zambia and South Africa.
